Medicine & Psychiatry- Integration at the Bedside

Friday, October 10th – Saturday October 11th, 2008.

University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, 200 Hawkins Drive, Iowa City, Iowa 52246

Association of Medicine and Psychiatry

Purpose:

This is the annual meeting of the Association of Medicine and Psychiatry. Attendees will learn about the integration of medical and psychiatric care to achieve the best outcomes for patients with co-morbid illness. This is a forum for residents and faculty of Combined Med-Psych and Family Med-Psych training to collaborate and learn about developments in the areas of combined training and integrated practice.

Opportunities for learning and Mentorship

Intended Audience:

- Trainees and practitioners of integrated Medicine/ Psychiatry and Family Medicine/Psychiatry
- Medical Students/Osteopathic Students interested in combined residency training and practice.
- Practitioners, nurses and allied providers in primary care and psychiatry

Please Note:

We are currently unable to provide CME credit for this program.

The Association of Medicine and Psychiatry is solely in charge of the scientific program and undertakes to ensure the absence of commercial bias.
